

Student Conference on Conservation Science

SCCS Hungary 2016

(Connecting Eastern and Western Europe in conservation biology)

Tihany (Lake Balaton)
30th August – 2nd September, 2016

SCCS Hungary offers young conservationists the opportunity to meet renowned plenary speakers, to attend career-enriching trainings, workshops and field trips and to have fun at the largest lake in Central Europe, Lake Balaton.

Important dates

- 15th March: Registration and abstract submission opens
- 15th May: Abstract submission deadline
- 30th May: Abstract selection notifications sent out
- 15th July: Deadline for invited presenters to confirm involvement
- 15th July: Registration deadline

Keynote speakers

Rhys Green (University of Cambridge)
How to feed the world while doing least harm to wild species?

Zsolt Molnár (Centre for Ecological Research, Hungary)
Role of traditional ecological knowledge in cultural landscapes

David Kleijn (Wageningen UR)
Evidence based biodiversity conservation and delivery of ecosystem services

Piero Visconti (UNEP WCMC)
Future scenarios for biodiversity and ecosystem services in Europe

<http://sccs.okologia.mta.hu>

Centre for Ecological Research

Hungarian Academy of Sciences

